

SLASH UNDERSEA CRAFT TONNAGE IS BRITISH PLEA

Delegation Is Doomed To Defeat, According To General Belief.

AMERICAN EXPERTS OPPOSE REDUCTION

Conference Awaits Exact Figures On French Requirements.

Washington, Dec. 23.—The armament conference swung towards the Christmas recess today with the much-feared submarine still the bone of contention among the various delegations.

Having already lost their fight for the total abolition of the submarine as a recognized agency of warfare, the British delegates are now expected to turn their efforts toward obtaining a substantial reduction of the tonnage allotments in undersea craft, proposed by Secretary of State Hughes in his original reduction program.

The British consider 90,000 tons of submarines for themselves and the United States, and 54,000 tons for the Japanese, far too big. At least half this figure, or 45,000 tons, with corresponding reductions for Japan, France and Italy, is sufficient, the British experts believe.

Here again, according to the opinions put forward today in other declarations, the British are doomed to defeat. The American experts who framed the limitation program pronounced by Secretary Hughes nearly six weeks ago, are dead against any reduction from the 90,000 tons proposed, and the nations having smaller tonnage allotments—Japan, France and Italy—are loath to relinquish to any appreciable degree the chief offset to British naval preponderance on the seven seas of the world.

It was generally admitted in authoritative quarters today that some slight concession may be obtained by Great Britain in the matter of submarine tonnage, but they will be of such small dimensions as to leave unaffected the undersea strength of the other powers.

It was hoped by the conference leaders this morning that when the session is resumed in the Pan American building late this afternoon the French delegates will be prepared to present exact figures of their requirements of submarines, light cruisers and torpedo craft.

The presentation of the French program was begun yesterday by M. Sarant, but had to be halted because of the figures upon which France rests her case had not arrived from Paris.

STATE TO ESTABLISH GAME PRESERVES IN COLUMBIANA COUNTY

Game Warden W. H. Toot of Lisbon has received instructions from the state fish and game department asking him to locate several game preserves in this county, no tract to be less than 500 acres, and preferably 1,000 acres.

Such lands will be taken over by the state by paying a nominal rental, and the entire tract will be put under wire fencing and posted. This will give the state absolute control of the land so far as hunting is concerned. The leases are to run for not less than three years.

Parties having land that they want protected in this way can notify Game Warden Toot at Lisbon, who has blank leases.

Urges Fireproof Decorations For Christmas Trees

Columbus, Dec. 23.—"Our last word of warning: Let Ohio have a fireless Christmas," said State Fire Marshal Dykeman. "Last year, few cotton-battened Santa Clauses were burned to death. Christmas trees and candles burned up considerable property," continued Marshal Dykeman. "All this is unnecessary, if we use care."

"Trim the tree with fireproof decorations so that the kiddies' Christmas will not be spoiled by fire. Keep the holly and pine wreaths away from gas and flame. Do not leave the holiday candles burning in windows while you are away from home. They may light the carol singers and they may light the sky."

"See that your chimneys are clean. Fire loves a dirty chimney, but Santa Claus does not."

"Let's all join in giving the kiddies a grand time and in giving fire the cold shoulder."

U. C. T. Will Meet

A regular meeting of Salem council No. 509, United Commercial Travelers of America, will be held Saturday evening. The Woman's club of the council will not meet Saturday evening.

Methodists Prepare Beautiful Pageant

Presbyterians Also Have Arranged Christmas Service.

"Bethlehem," the pageant to be presented at the First Methodist church Christmas night by more than 40 people under the direction of Miss Mary Holderman and Mrs. E. W. Pulker, promises to be one of the most beautiful entertainments of its kind ever presented in the church.

It is the unfolding of the story of Bethlehem as told by the Christmas mother, which role is assumed by Miss Mary McMurray. Special scenery has been purchased and electrical devices will produce artistic effects. The electricians are Edwin Smith, Charles Shears, John Terry and Joseph Chamberlain.

The soloists are the Misses Eleanor Tolerton and Mary Louise Mellinger and W. H. Matthews and the wise men are characterized by W. H. Matthews, W. U. Miller and H. G. Holdrege. Miss Edith Gilbert is the violinist. Raymond Fletcher is seen as the prophet; Lee Lanpher is the innkeeper and Dallas Keller, Lee Chamberlain and Fred Gibbons are the shepherds. The entertainment will begin promptly at 7:30 p. m. Sunday.

At 9:45 Christmas morning the primary department of the church will conduct their Christmas program and under the guidance of Mrs. Paul Barckhoff they have prepared recitations and songs for the event. They will enjoy the annual Christmas treat at this time and the children will also have tree and toys. It is announced that at this time the intermediate and Junior intermediate groups will be treated.

First Presbyterian A Christmas program will be given at the First Presbyterian church at 10:30 a. m. Sunday. It follows:

Processional, orchestra; hymn, No. 171, "Joy to the World"; prayer, W. S. Green; song, "Bethlehem," Sabbath school; recitation, "Our King," Louise Smith; recitation, "Nearly Christmas," Virginia Hanes; song, "The Road That Leads to Bethlehem," recitation, "A Christmas Carol," Elizabeth McKee; singing, "Christmas Carols," Girls' Chorus; recitation, four girls; song, "No Room at the Inn," recitation, Gayard Fick; song, "Happy Are We," Junior department; recitation, "Three Gifts," seven boys and three wise men; of fertility, orchestra; solo, Helen Isen-

Benefit Musicale For Charity Cases At Central Clinic

A movie and musical for the benefit of charity cases at Central Clinic hospital will be given Wednesday evening, Dec. 23, at the Grand opera house.

Misses Elizabeth Miller and Helen Isensee will sing and Marian Campbell will give readings. Marimba solos will be given by Eldon Voerman.

In addition to these numbers the picture, "Polly With a Past," featuring Ina Claire, will be presented. Tickets are on sale by members of the Woman's auxiliary.

Moose Filling Baskets For 30 Families

Needy families of members of Salem lodge No. 51, Loyal Order of Moose, are promised a happy Christmas with the announcement by the lodge that about 30 well filled baskets will be given out.

A chicken, sack of flour, potatoes, vegetables, bread, coffee, sugar and other foods will be placed in the baskets which are to be delivered Saturday.

WEIGAND IS REFUSED DAMAGES AS RESULT OF AUTO COLLISION

The damage case of C. J. Weigand of Salem against W. H. Marshall of Columbiana, growing out of an automobile accident on the road between the two cities, ended with a verdict in favor of the defendant when the jury at Lisbon reported Thursday afternoon. The jury was out but a few minutes.

The testimony showed that on July 5, 1921, Weigand in passing two cars that were ahead of his machine, turned out to the opposite side of the road and just after passing collided with Marshall's auto. Both machines were damaged, but no one was hurt.

Weigand brought suit for damages, but the jury refused to allow him any. Marshall in his cross-petition asked for damages, but his claim also was refused.

LISBON KIWANIS CLUB GIVES FUND FOR NEEDY

Lisbon, Dec. 23.—The Lisbon Kiwanis club at its luncheon Thursday noon, completed its plans for providing Christmas dinners for 30 families in Lisbon and also included in the plans some relief of a more permanent character than the single dinner for Sunday.

A sum aggregating more than $150 was raised, which will be turned over to the Red Cross and Miss Mable Marquis, who has been acting with Miss Hilda Rigby, Red Cross secretary, in ascertaining what is needed in the way of aid for the needy families.

SPECIAL DANCE SATURDAY NIGHT, LADIES FREE. FORESTERS HALL.

World Needs To Take Trip To God's Bathhouse, Says Sunday In Holiday Message

Los Angeles, Dec. 23.—The Rev. Billy Sunday, famous evangelist, visiting in Los Angeles with relatives, in an interview with the International News Service today sent a holiday message to the people of America.

"Get Right with God—that should be the New Year's resolution of every man, woman and child in America," he said.

"You can dot every hill top with a school, put a university in every block and a college on every corner until ignorance sinks away like a wolf to its den, but America will sink into hell unless its purity of heart keeps pace with its brilliancy of intellect."

"America and the whole world needs to take a trip to God's bathhouse and get the hose turned on it."

Mr. Sunday touched on feminine fashion to declare:

"Modest apparel means a high standard of morals. Immodest apparel means a low standard of morals. Women are wearing less, and getting away with it now, than ever before."

"What about disarmament?" he was asked.

"It's all right—I believe in it," replied Sunday. "I didn't think the Japs would come through the way they did. I stand with Californians on this Jap question, and I didn't."

LOFTY TRIBUTE IS PAID MEMORY OF WATTERSON BY GOVERNOR MORROW

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 23.—"Henry Watterson served his state and his country," declared Gov. Edwin P. Morrow, Republican, in a statement issued last night, supplementing his brief comment early in the morning. "He loved Kentucky and his trenchant pen and silver tongue were at their best when he wrote or spoke of the commonwealth." His statement, full is as follows:

"With all of his great mental courage which never knew surrender, Henry Watterson served his state and his country. He loved Kentucky and his trenchant pen and silver tongue were at their best when he wrote or spoke of the commonwealth. While many did not agree with his political policies, no man ever challenged the integrity of his opinions and he was universally beloved because of his qualities of head and heart."

"The great American, the great Kentuckian, the last of the journalists who wielded tremendous influence has passed away. There is no one left to use the pen that fell from his fingers."

"Down in the cornfields of the blue grass, in the pennyrill, in the heart of the great throbbing city and the high stretches of the mountains, there is sorrow today because 'Marse Henry' has left his old Kentucky home."

ALABACK BEFORE COURT ON NON-SUPPORT CHARGE

Max Alaback, of Salem, was before Judge Riddle Thursday morning to answer to a charge of non-support of his minor son, James, aged 7, but refused to plead guilty to the charge because he claimed that he had sufficient reason for not contributing toward the support of the boy. He says he has had no work since last April and is unable to secure any. Judge Riddle continued the case until Mrs. Alaback, who made the affidavit can be brought into court. Alaback and his wife are separated, the wife and child residing with her relatives.

CONCERT IS ARRANGED BY BUTLER GRANGERS

The children gave a program of dialogues, recitations and music at the lecture hour of Butler grange Thursday evening at the hall, near Winona.

Two applications for membership were received. Under the auspices of the grange a concert will be held at the hall Jan. 10. The new officers will be installed on the first Saturday evening in January. A treat of candy and oranges was distributed at this meeting.

FINERAN IS ENTERED IN BILLIARD TOURNEY

Walter Fineran, formerly of Salem, is one of the leading contenders in the Terre Haute three-cushion billiard tournament being held there with 10 of the city's best entered, according to information from the December issue of the Billiards magazine.

Fineran is the only scratch man in the tournament. In the opening week of play he disposed of two opponents with ease.

Caught In Warsaw As Wall St. Plot Suspect.

Wolfe Lindenfeld.

Wolfe Lindenfeld, former New Yorker, who is under arrest in Warsaw, Poland, as a suspect in the Wall St. bomb disaster, Lindenfeld was traced to Poland by two secret service agents, who gained his confidence by posing as Communists. He is said to have confessed to knowledge of the plot.

Guard Against Raids To Free 'Moonshiners'

Two Men Arrested, Third Is Killed In Battle With Dry Officers.

Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 23.—All available federal prohibition officers have been sent to Antigo today to guard against rumored attempts to release two alleged "moonshiners" who were arrested late yesterday in a battle in which one of their companions was killed.

More than a dozen associates of the men under arrest are reported to have escaped and it is feared they will attempt to storm the jail and release their comrades.

The arrest of the two men and the slaying of the third resulted from a battle in which 1,000 shots were fired according to reports reaching here. The battle was fought in the woods near Antigo and centered about a shack where it is declared the moonshiners maintained headquarters. Several of the moonshiners are believed to have been wounded.

Federal officers, hearing reports that liquor was being dealt in on a large scale in the north woods, began an investigation 10 days ago. While approaching the cabin where yesterday's battle occurred, it was said, the prohibition officers were fired on. They got reinforcements and after a battle captured Joseph and Luther Tetington, brothers. When the officers entered the cabin they found Julius Wurzer dead from bullet wounds.

FIREMEN RESCUE DOZEN FROM TENEMENT BLAZE

New York, Dec. 23.—Firemen and policemen rescued 12 persons, including seven children of one family, down extension ladders when fire swept a five-story tenement house in East 116th st. early today.

Fifty families in the burning building and those surrounding were driven into the snowy cold of the street in scanty attire. The damage was $50,000.

PRIZE MOOSE DEGREE TEAM TO WORK HERE

Three applications for membership were received at a meeting of Salem lodge No. 571, L. O. O. M., Thursday evening at the hall, Main st.

There will be initiation at a meeting next week and the Canton degree by open from 8 until 11 a. m. There will be one city delivery and the regular rural delivery.

ONE CITY DELIVERY OF MAIL NEXT MONDAY

For the holiday postal service Postmaster George H. Mounts announces that there will be no service Sunday. Monday the general delivery and stamp window at the postoffice will be open from 8 until 11 a. m. There will be one city delivery and the regular rural delivery.

In announcing the closing of the campaign the workers stated that incomplete reports compiled Friday indicate that 44,000 seals have been sold by school children in their schools.

SUIT CASE HOLDS MUTILATED BODY OF MISSING GIRL

Gruesome Discovery Made In Closet Of Hotel In New Jersey.

LEFT PLAYING AS MOTHER WAS BUSY

Man, Aged 54, Reported To Have Taken Child To The Hotel.

New Brunswick, N. J., Dec. 23.—Packed in a suit case the mutilated body of Hazel Carechsky, six years old, was found in the closet of the Hotel Albany here early today by Patrolman William Savage.

The child had been missing since yesterday afternoon. The little girl lived with her mother at the Bellmore hotel, which the mother manages. The girl's father is under indictment in connection with an attack on the child and has been missing some time. Mrs. Carechsky left Hazel playing on the ball room floor while she went upstairs to attend to her duties.

The last the mother saw of the child was at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon when she left her in the usual way in the ballroom.

At 6 o'clock Hazel was seen to enter the Hotel Albany with George Garris, who is 54 years old and lived at the hotel. He told the others at the hotel that the child was his granddaughter.

At about 7 o'clock the police said Garris was seen to leave the hotel without the girl. He has not been seen since.

When the mother missed the little girl a search was begun, ending in the discovery of the daughter. Garris was tried last May on an indictment charging him with a serious crime but was acquitted. He is a carpenter.

The Carechsky girl was light haired and ruddy checked and was every pretty.

Medical examination of the child's body showed that she had been assaulted and then choked to death.

The suit case was a new one and newly purchased. Blood stained towels were found in the closet near the suit case.

REPORT $500,000 LOSS IN BLAZE DESTROYING COTTON GOODS PLANT

Philadelphia, Dec. 23.—Fire early today destroyed all but one of the four buildings at the plant of William Whitaker & Son, cotton goods manufacturers at Olney, a suburb, causing loss estimated at $500,000.

Difficulty in securing water because of the isolated location of the mill hindered the firemen in fighting the flames. Hose lines were laid to a creek a mile distant. Fire plugs near the plant were frozen. The fire was extinguished after an eight-hour battle.

CHILDREN PRESENT PLAYLET AT CHURCH

When they presented the playlet, "Mother Goose's Visit to Santa Claus," at the Christian church, Thursday evening, the children portrayed some of the best work in acting ever witnessed in the church. Each and every one of the characters acted their parts with ease and ability while the soloists deserve much credit. Miss Doris Wisner was the accompanist and Miss Gladys Wisner entertained with violin selections.

Following the program the junior department received their Christmas treat while the primary department will be treated at the church school period Christmas morning.

The playlet was directed by Miss Natalie Sharpnack. Mrs. S. R. Shiva and Mrs. L. B. Harris with the assistance of several girls of the church.

Youth Must Hang For Killing Two

Chicago, Dec. 23.—Harvey W. Church, the youth who lured Bernard K. Daugherty and Carl W. Asmus, automobile salesmen, into the basement of his home and killed them, must hang. A jury today reported a verdict of guilty and fixed the punishment at death.

GAS MAIN BREAKS; 5 HURT

Amherst, Dec. 23.—Five employees of the Logan Natural Gas company were injured when a 10-inch gas main broke in a trench in which they were working, peppering the men with pieces of stone and broken pipe. All are expected to recover.

Free The Soldiers First
THE attorney-general of the United States is now reviewing the cases of nearly 200 so-called political prisoners. These persons, of whom Eugene V. Debs is the most prominent figure, were convicted of hindering, by overt act or resistance, the execution of the laws framed for the prosecution of the war. It is supposed to be Mr. Daugherty's intent to recommend to the president pardons in some or all of these cases.

Without entering upon the merits of this proceeding The News believes that before the administration extends clemency to any political offender it should free all military offenders now in prison.

By military offenders we do not mean men who while in the army committed crimes against the person, such as murder, assault and robbery. We mean the soldiers who were convicted of desertion, absence without leave, intoxication, sleeping on post, disobedience and the like.

Much to its credit, this country executed none of its soldiers during the war except for murder or mistreatment of women. But more than 300 men were sentenced to prison, the terms ranging from one year to life, for purely military offenses such as are listed above. Those still in prison have been there at least three years.

Many of these military prisoners were scarcely more than boys. They were mostly drafted men. They went into the army unfamiliar with discipline. Only human, they could not leave their weakness behind. Putting an ignorant and wayward lad in uniform does not always imbue him with a moral repugnance toward desertion, disobedience or drunkenness.

True, these were offenders who gave bad example to their comrades. They deserved punishment and they are having it. But do they deserve more punishment than the men who never went to war at all, who not only failed in their own duty but urged others to violate the wartime laws of the country?

Which is more deserving of pity in this season of compassion: the intellectual "political prisoner" in Atlanta who tried to block the purpose of America or the ignorant military prisoner in Leavenworth who, within sound of the guns, yielded to fear, desire for drink or a rebellious temper, unused to discipline?

Which of these two, set free, would be the more useful to the nation if, war should come again?

Economy And Efficiency
WALTER F. BROWN of Ohio, chosen by the president to work out a plan for operating the government departments more cheaply and efficiently, bases his program on the simple principle of elimination of needless offices and overlapping activities and the concentration of responsibilities in similar fields. Thus the two departments of the navy and the army would be merged into one, the department of national defense, as they should be. Such a change ought not only to save a great deal of money but also to assure better systematized and more effective defense preparations. And, under Mr. Brown's plan, one department of public welfare would do the work now entrusted to several bureaus of more or less allied aims.

The general idea is unassailable from standpoints of economy and efficiency, though it doubtless will be fought hard by those who wish the jobs which might be abolished or the distribution of them. Concentration of responsibility is always the right policy, for it puts an officeholder on his mettle since he knows he cannot escape the blame if he spends too much or accomplishes too little. It is said that Mr. Brown's plan would save the taxpayers $1,000,000 a day and it may be said further that under it they would see the work of government better done. Economy and efficiency almost always go hand in hand.

China had women soldiers long before Russia.

20 YEARS AGO

(Issue of Dec. 23, 1901.)
Evidence that there will be an unusually large number of weddings during the holidays is that up until noon today 19 marriage licenses had been issued. Those from Salem include Ada M. Bowmah and Harvey E. Lakin; Geneva A. Weaver and Orville W. Green, and Ida M. Clark and John J. Pugh.

T. B. Brothers has received word of the death of his brother, Charles Brothers, of New Castle, Pa.

Miss Blanche Farmer, who lives south of the city, was awarded the medal in a contest at Canfield Saturday night.

Supt. Charles Effer went to Cleveland today to inspect the new car for the Salem Electric Street Railway company, which is to be put on the track soon.

Joseph H. Martin, Franklin Mills, Pa., is visiting his cousin, W. C. Martin, 1222 st., whom he had not seen for 19 years.

Mrs. Jacob Shoe, Hawley ave., was knocked down and run over by a team hitched to Robert Dunn's milk wagon. She received a cut over the eye and other bruises about the head. The Presbyterian church has arranged to give the Salvation Army workers here substantial aid.

The oldest suit in the Ohio supreme court was decided last Wednesday. It has been pending 50 years.

More animals, afflicted with rabies have been killed in the neighborhood of Shelton's grove, as a result of having been bitten by a mad dog.

Origin of Lunar Features.
Mr. Walter Goodacre discussing the photographs of the moon taken at Mount Wilson with the Hatcher telescope, says that the hypothesis describing the formation of lunar craters to the impact of meteors is now generally discredited, but if additional arguments against it were necessary they would be found in a careful study of the superb photographs above mentioned. He states that a consideration of the fine detail found in these pictures, especially in relation to the many crater chains and belts, suggests that their existence can only be accounted for on the supposition that they are due to volcanic activity in the early days of the moon's history. —Scientific American.

ECONOMY IS NEEDED SAYS TAXATION BODY; HITS CLASSIFICATION

Columbus, Dec. 23.—The joint legislative taxation committee refused to adopt the classification amendment formulated by its sub-committee in Cleveland a few days ago and in its stead adopted a resolution declaring the state's needs not to be tax laws but curtailment of expenditures and economy in both state and political subdivision management. This action is construed to mean that there will be no special session.

The resolution declaring for economy said:

The solution of the tax problem at this time is to be found in the curtailment of expenses and the practice of more strict economy in the expenditure of public money and particularly in local subdivisions.

The vote rejecting the classification amendment school nine for and five against, but it previously had been decided that no proposal was to be considered adopted unless five of the seven committee members from each house supported it. The five house members voting against it were Graham of Madison; Graham of Licking; Fouts of Morgan; Brown of Champaign and Robinson of Lawrence.

The committee took no step to inform Gov. Davis of its failure to agree. "It is a closed incident," said Senator Whittemore, chairman.

Representative Graham of Licking offered the resolution blaming the taxation evils on official extravagance. Senators Whittemore of Summit and Dewese of Miami cast the only votes against it.

Singling out Representative Taft of Cincinnati, a classificationist, Senator Whittemore asked whether Cincinnati could live within its income under the present taxation system. Taft surprised him by answering, "Yes."

Senator Whittemore took exception to this, insisting that "economy is not sufficient, particularly since in many subdivisions most of the taxes go to payments of debts and retirement of bonds."

RED PEPPER HEAT STOPS BACKACHE

The heat of red peppers takes the "ouch" from a sore lame back. It cannot hurt you and it certainly ends the torture at once.

When you are suffering so you can hardly get around, just try Red Pepper Rub, and you will have the quickest relief known. Nothing has been concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers.

Just as soon as you apply Red Pepper Rub you will feel the tingling heat. In three minutes it warms the sore spot through and through. Pain and soreness are gone.

Ask any druggist for a jar of Rowles Red Pepper Rub. Be sure to get the genuine, with the name Rowles on each package.

STASIA WELLS SPURNS $100,000 HEART BALM

Youngstown, Dec. 23.—Attorney W. J. Kenealy announced late Thursday that Stasia Welsh Wells, first wife small a settlement for her husband, will not accept the $100,000 is entitled to her dower interest in the estate, under the law. Wells was divorced from Stasia Wells last July and married Marion Poyie, a New York nurse, several weeks later. Meanwhile, the court on appeals reversed the lower court. Wells offered to settle this week for $100,000, it is said.

"Stasia will not accept any such sum as suggested," said Attorney Kenealy. "She feels that it is too small a settlement for her husband's estate, under the law."

Kenealy said the suit for $100,000 against Marion Poyie for alleged alienation of affections would be filed in Mahoning county courts as soon as details were completed.

The gifts of jewelry we cherish are only but another picture of our life. Years old are the days they call us back to, days that would have been forgotten, had it not been for the thoughtfulness and good judgment of the giver we now always remember.

Years from now how many will have forgotten the Xmas of 1921? How many will miss the joy that goes with every member of the giving or receiving of a gift that lasts.

Make this Yuletide better lasting, time enduring. Give jewelry, symbols of love eternal.

SOCIETY

At Broomall Home

One of the most enjoyable social events ever held by the Blue Bird and Pals All classes of the First Friends church was that Thursday afternoon when the members were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Broomall, the former teacher of the Pals All class, at their home on Newgarden st.

The home was beautifully decorated in the Christmas colors, red and green and poinsettias.

A mock wedding was a fun provoking feature. This is the personnel of the wedding party: Bride, Miss Martha Park; groom, Kenneth Jones; bridesmaid, Miss Mary Iler; best man, Lorin Herbert; minister, Willard Dixon; bride's father, Leland Long.

A unique feature of the evening was an original "telephone" conversation carried on by Miss Elith Ward and Miss Naomi Herr, which included each member of the classes in some humorous way.

Following the lunch there was a grab bag from which each guest received a gift.

The invited guests were Misses Thelma Long, Isabel Deer and Geneva Barker.

Maccabee Women

Sixty members of Salem review No. 238, Woman's Benefit Association of the Maccabees, attended a regular session Thursday evening at the hall, Main st.

This was a most enjoyable session. There was a Christmas tree and each one present drew a gift. Mrs. Wallace Calladine got the quilt that was given away. A lunch was served.

Mrs. Laura Gariside gave a report of the recent rally held at Youngstown.

Girls Have Party

Girls employed in the office of the Salem China company had a Christmas party Thursday evening at the home of Miss Elizabeth Grubbs, Cleveland ave. Christmas decorations adorned the home and under a small Christmas tree gifts were placed for each guest. Music, dancing and cards formed the program of entertainment.

Open Christmas Box

Verna Bolon was elected a member at a meeting of Troop 4, Girl Scouts, captained by Miss Ella Smith, Thursday evening at the home of Virginia Walpert, East Seventh st. A Christmas box was opened. Wednesday evening, Dec. 28, the members will meet with Mildred Sheehan, East Fourth st.

Christmas Frolic Dance

Guests from Youngstown, Canton, Warren and Alliance are expected to attend the Christmas Frolic dance to be given by Emerson Smith and Kenneth Mounts Friday evening at the Elks home, McKelvey ave. Eldredge's Harmony seven-piece orchestra of Canton will play for dancing from 8:30 to 11:30.

A Christmas Party

Operators employed by the Ohio State Telephone company held a party Thursday evening at the home of Miss Minnie Bush, East Fourth st. Games and music contributed to the jolly time enjoyed by the girls and a Christmas box added to the pleasure of the event. A lunch was served.

Bethany Girls Class

A covered dish supper was enjoyed by members of the Bethany Girls class of the Christian church, taught by Miss Catherine Zeigler, Thursday evening at the home of Miss Beatrice Conkle, Roosevelt ave. Games were played and Christmas gifts exchanged.

Heat At Dinner

Brooks Emery entertained 12 young people, mostly his college friends, at a dinner Thursday evening at his home on Cleveland ave. The after dinner hours were enjoyed at dancing and cards.

Children's Christmas Party

The annual Christmas party of the Primary and Cradle Roll departments of the Sunday school of the First Presbyterian church was a successful social event of Thursday afternoon at the church. About 150, including the mothers of the children, enjoyed the festivities. There were recitations and songs by the children and Miss Grace Orr sang several selections for the company.

Ice cream and cake were served and the children given boxes of candy.

Miss Mary Waterworth is superintendent of the Primary department and her assistants are Mrs. Anna Sapp, Mrs. J. A. Noble, Mrs. George Campbell, Miss Mary Jacobs, Mrs. Howard Chamberlain and Miss Agnes French.

Operators Party

Friday evening operators and their assistants employed at the Ohio State telephone exchange at Columbiana will have a party at the home of Miss Erna Burkhardt there. Exchange of Christmas presents will be a feature.

Frank Eldredge, Canton, who is connected with the Parson's Harmony orchestra, will be a guest Friday night of Eldon Vonneman, East High st.

"MAIL MAN" GETS OWN CHRISTMAS PRESENT

Cleveland, Dec. 23. — Jewelry valued at more than $1,000 was the loot this morning of a burglar who forced his way into an East Side apartment, bound and gagged two women occupants and escaped. ## Suit Instituted

An agreement entered into a little over a year ago between Willis Lawrence and Ernest Bell, south of Columbiana, under which the former was to drive a team on the farm of Bell, hauling lumber about the saw mill operated by him, bases an action filed in the common pleas court on Thursday. In which Lawrence seeks to recover judgment for $375.52 against Bell. Lawrence claims that Bell agreed to pay him a stated amount for his services, and did pay him a part of the amount owing to him, leaving the amount sued for as the balance due.

Head Stuffed By Catarrh or Cold? Use Healing Cream

If your nostrils are clogged, your throat distressed, or your head is stuffed by nasty catarrh or a cold, apply a little pure, antiseptic, germ destroying cream into your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage, soothing inflamed, swollen membranes and you get instant relief.

How good it feels. Your nostrils are open. Your head is clear. No more hawking, snuffling, dryness, or struggling for breath. Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from any druggist. Colds and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed up. Relief is sure.

EAST LIVERPOOL WOMAN GIVEN $2,500 VERDICT

The jury in the $29,000 damage case of Mrs. Emerelda Dubbs, of East Liverpool, against the city of East Liverpool, which was on trial in court room No. 2 before Judge David G. Jenkins Wednesday and Thursday returned a verdict Thursday afternoon in favor of the plaintiff for $2,500. A motion was made by the defendant for a new trial, the same being overruled and judgment rendered on the verdict.

The plaintiff sued the city of East Liverpool for permanent injuries sustained by her to her right arm in a fall on the night of Feb. 14 last, when she stumbled and fell over a pile of clinkers, cladders and ashes which had been piled on the sidewalk along Globe st.

VICIOUS ATTACKS HELP CONFERENCE

FOREIGN DELEGATES, HAVING LEARNED THEIR SOURCE, DIS-REGARD THEM.

BOOST RATHER THAN HINDER

Representatives From Other Nations
Amazed by Strength of Religious Sentiment Here, Which Is Backing
American Armament Reduction Plan.

Washington.—Vicarious attacks from certain American quarters which have been made on the plan for the reduction of armaments, and for a proper solution of Far Eastern problems, seemingly have resulted in a strengthening of the cause for which the conference was called instead of weakening it, as the attackers hoped would be the case.

Recently some of the criticisms of the plan for partial disarmament have become venomous. The attempt, of course, is to sow proverbial seeds of dissension in a hitherto fair field of exchange between the foreigners who are here present. It seems to be manifest today that not only the delegates who are here from abroad, but the American administration itself, think the assailants of the plan have overplayed their hand and have helped that which they were seeking to harm.

The foreign delegates at first were astounded at the nature of some of the assaults on the American proposition for a partial disarmament. They seemed staggered by the extent of the suddenly sprung opposition. Then they began to ask questions about it, and then they began to reason the thing out for themselves. Today they seem to have arrived at the conclusion that the cause in behalf of which they had met had been advanced by the nature of its enemy and the nature of its assaults.

Force of American Emotion.

It may seem curious, but the fact probably is not at all so, that the foreigners represented here have a feeling that the American "emotion," which brought about prohibition, is going to force success for the plan which President Harding, through his secretary of state, has proposed. I have been told by foreigners that they are somewhat amazed at the strength of what they call the religious sentiment in this country. They had an idea before coming here that the influx of immigrants and some other things which have produced continental Sundays in our great cities, also have changed the face of the whole countryside. They say they have found they were mistaken, and that the moral element in America is still the dominant one, and is militant for things it thinks are righteous.

The foreigners seemingly have taken sharp notice of the nature of the American elements which are active in support of procedure along lines leading to a reduction of armament. What is called the church element is particularly marked in its influence here and in its methods of exercising it. It should be said for the churches as churches that most of them have not gone to fanatical extremes in this matter, but rather have contented themselves with urging that a step forward be taken, instead of urging that the whole path to lasting peace shall be traveled in one day.

It probably is some satisfaction to the administration to know that the more vicious attacks on its program are from certain quarters, the firmer stand the forces of approval.
The mass sentiment of the United States seems to be strong for the success of the conference, and probably, it is knowledge of this that is responsible for the word that the President already is looking with unconcern upon assaults which have come upon his policy from some men of his own political party.

Attacks Proving Futile.

It probably has been the thought of the forces of assault that some of their poison gas shells would drive the foreigners out of their positions, would force confusion and eventually would compel them to retire from the field with the object unachieved for which they came together. Seemingly the result has been in reverse. The various delegates, including the American delegation, apparently have been strengthened in their desire for real achievement by the attempts to weaken their position and to undermine the ideal which had brought them together.

It probably has been rather a happy thing for the good of the cause that the substantial elements of the American population have urged limitation of armaments instead of actual disarmament, thereby differentiating themselves from other elements, luckily weaker ones, which have been urging complete disarmament for America, no matter what the rest of the world might do.

One day there is optimism in Washington, and the next day there is pessimism. The delegates themselves seem willing constantly to remain in the field where cheerful things grow.
Not a note of fear of failure of results ever is struck by any foreign group of delegates; at least not struck so that anybody can hear it. The foreigners apparently have made up their minds that even if things look dark they must maintain a sunlight of expression.

First Pictures Of Release Of Irish Prisoners

Following the signing of the peace treaty between Ireland and England there were many stirring scenes in Dublin. While the anti-cabinet was meeting at the Mansion House political prisoners were being released from camps and jails and were given cordial receptions by relatives, friends and thousands of sympathizers who flocked to the receipt of the news. The above photo shows two of the prisoners being greeted by friends as they left Kilmalmain prison, Dublin. A prisoner is shown, in the lower left-hand corner, being given a railway warrant by a soldier. These warrants were given to all those who lived any distance from the camp.

Oles Says Steam Roller Is Oiled For Mayor's Job

Youngstown, Dec. 23.—Mayor-elect George L. Oles, who rode to victory on an independent ticket, was busy today getting in touch with affairs at the city building.

"I know where a lot of gambling houses are," said the Mayor-elect.
"I know as much about the underworld of Youngstown as anybody else, I think."

"I expect to cause some surprises in my appointments and expect to give the people of Youngstown some more after I get into office. Some people predict I will have a rough road to travel. I have my steam roller well oiled and am sure we will be able to roll out the rough spots without much trouble."

"So much advice was given me while in Florida that I feel I would be able to go to New York and run that city without any trouble. When I take office, I will be glad to see and shake hands with everybody, but if anyone wants a job, he will have to put his application in writing. If I should spend one-half hour with each person I could see only 20 each day.
It would take 6,500 days or nearly 18 years to see all of the people in Youngstown for that length of time.
"We shall not have any advisory or kitchen cabinet. The only cabinet I shall have will be city council."

Oles also said he was going to run the city within its income, "and if we don't have the money to pay salaries, the employees will have to quit and department heads will have to cut down their help."

LEETONIA

Installation of officers for the new year and the initiation of six candidates into the order were principal features of the special meeting Tuesday evening of the Leetonia chapter, No. 253, Order of the Eastern Stars, when a large company of invited guests from the Salem chapter and others from Columbiana, East Palestine and Washingtonville participated in the ceremonies.

The officers directing the work for the ensuing year are: Worthy patron, Miss Ruth Bessart; worthy patroness, John E. Woodward; associate patroness, Helen Stambaugh; secretary, Miss Florence Corli; treasurer, Mrs. Grace Weikart; conductress, Mrs. Mary Johnson; associate conductress, Mrs. Helen B. Weikart; chaplain, Mrs. Eva Ashley; marshal, Mrs. Sarah Johnson; organist, Miss Carrie Truesdale; Ada, Miss Amy Shinn; Ruth, Miss Clara B. Weikart; Esther, Miss Elsie Pulker; Martha, Mrs. Merna Elmwanger; warden, Mrs. Ida Redfoot; sentinel, S. V. Shive.

Ritualistic work was followed by social interests. An elaborate lunch was served to more than 100 members and guests, under the directions of Mrs. C. R. Shontz.

Miss Mary Weaver of Columbiana, and Solomon E. Nold of Alliance, attended the funeral of Mrs. Nancy Stouffer at the Mennonite church Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Sarah Corli spent Monday in Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Myron Hileman and daughter, Miss Alta, were young own visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. G. W. Kline has conceived a visit with her sister, Mrs. C. F. Peppel, and returned to her home in Deerfield.

Leetonia schools closed Friday for a two weeks vacation. The afternoon was devoted to Christmas entertainments.

Mrs. L. E. Harmon of Columbiana was the dinner guest of Mrs. Anna Thrasher Sunday.

Mrs. George Woods and little son were Columbiana callers Monday.

Mildred Weidmayer is visiting in Warren this week.

Herman Feyock is very ill with rheumatism at his home on the North Side.

This is just what the man out of work is looking for. We can trade you this fine 30-acre farm, located about three miles west of Salem and about one mile south of State brick road; about half mile from good school; two-story five-room slate roof house; good bank barn with silo; all other necessary out-buildings; variety of fruit.

If this farm is sold at once, we can offer you six cows, two head of young cattle, two horses, about 40 young chickens, and all farming implements necessary to use on the farm; also ensilage, hay and grain. The owner of this farm will consider a medium priced city property as part pay, so if you have a city home at the right price, come in and trade for this farm, and you will not need to worry about a job, for you have it here. All for only $7,000. Come today and do not wait until tomorrow.

Irregular Opening

New York, Dec. 23.—The Jersey market showed an irregular tone at the opening today with most of the leading issues fractionally lower. American Locomotive moved up one point to 103½, while Baldwin was ¼ lower at 95. U. S. Steel was ¼ lower at 82½. American Sumatra was ½ lower at 30. Chandler Motor showed a loss of ½ at 46½, and Studebaker was ¼ lower at 77½. The railroad shares were fractionally lower. The market continued heavy throughout the forenoon. Corn products were in supply, falling over 2 points to 95 and losses of from 1 to 2 points occurred in many other specialties. American Locomotive continued in demand, selling up to 104 a new high record for the year.

Britons' Football Game "Lady-Like" This Woman Says

London, Dec. 23.—The Football association, which has adopted resolutions discouraging football matches by women, is being showered with protests from all parts of the country.
"Football is a fine, lady-like game," said Miss Selma Dix of Coventry, birthrate commissioner of the National Council of Public Morals and supervisor of recreation for girl munition workers during the war.
"I saw one football match played between women and there was nothing very serious about it," she continued. "I think the thousands of people who saw the game enjoyed it."
The Evening News prints a number of letters on the subject. Some writers say football will make women stronger. Others say women are constantly growing more masculine and naturally are turning to men's sport.

State Leader Will Address Farm Bureau

Lisbon, Dec. 21. — M. D. Lincoln, secretary of the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation, will be the principal speaker during the afternoon session of the third annual meeting of the Columbiana County Farm Bureau, to be held in the Lisbon opera house, Jan. 3.

County Agent Clarence E. Rowland is of the opinion that between 750 and 1,000 people will attend this meeting.

The County Farm Bureau has over 1,300 members and the roster has shown a gradual growth since the intensified canvass was completed in this county for three-year members last spring.

Clark J. Halverstad, of Leontonia, president of the County Farm Bureau will open the morning session. He will dwell at length on the progress the bureau has made during the last fiscal year. Four directors are to be elected at the January meeting and to the township having the largest number of members present, the executive committee will present a resolution American flag.

The official program for the annual meeting of the Columbiana County Farm Bureau follows:

Morning Session, 10:30 O'clock
Call to order, by the president.
Reading of the minutes of the last meeting by the secretary.

Remarks by the president.
Report of Committees on Constitution, R. B. Thompson, chairman.

Adoption of report.
Election of delinquent township delegates.

Reports of the secretary.
Reports of the treasurer.
Reports of the state auditor.

Adoption of report's.
Adjournment, 11:45 a. m.

Afternoon Session 1 O'clock
Community songs.
Invocation, Rev. D. E. Scott.

Report of work in county, C. E. Rowland.

Report on election, delegates.
"My trip to Atlanta, Ga.," J. M. Kerr.

Songs.
Address by M. D. Lincoln, secretary of the O. F. B. F.

Presentation of flag.
Adjournment at 4 p. m.

with gas around my heart. Couldn't breathe, many people say.

No such choking or anxiety if you will take Baalman's Gas Tablets, which are prepared disinfected and especially for Stomach Gas, and particularly for all the bad effects from gas pressure against your most vital organ—your heart.

That empty, gone and gnawing feeling at the pit of your stomach will disappear, that anxious, nervous feeling, with heart palpitation, will vanish, and you will once more be able to take a deep breath, so often prevented by Gas pressing against your heart and lungs. These unique Tablets are sold by The Lease Drug Co. and all reliable druggists.

Be careful and insist on the genuine Baalman's Gas Tablets in a yellow package, price one dollar. J. Baalman, Chemist, San Francisco.

SCHOOL BOARD SELLS BONDS TO PAY BILLS

The Center township board of education in order to secure funds to take care of accumulated indebtedness, will sell bonds to the amount of $6,744 at public sale on Jan. 7 at the office of the township clerk. The bonds bear 6 per cent interest and mature in three and a half years. This district, like many others in the county, is behind with its bills and was forced to issue the bonds to take care of them.

PEPTO-MANGAN KEEPS BLOOD PURE

Growing Children Need Plenty of Red Cells
in Blood

When the young body is growing, children frequently experience weakness. Girls and boys sometimes play too hard and overtax their systems. They become pale, weak, and sickly. They lose their appetite, become languid, and are not able to make progress in school work. "Growing too fast" is often true. It is most important to keep the blood of growing girls and boys in a healthy state.

Pepto-Mangan keeps the blood pure. The red cells in the blood are increased. They carry life-giving oxygen to all parts of the body, and wholesome youthfulness blooms again in clear complexions, bright eyes and buoyant spirits. Sold both in liquid and tablet form by druggists everywhere. The name "Gude's Pepto-Mangan" is on the package.

IMPROVED ROADS DEMAND EXCEEDS AVAILABLE FUND

Million Required For Every Program: Only $200,000
Is In Sight.

By M. K. Zimmerman

Lisbon, Dec. 21 — Demand for improved roads in Columbiana county is greater than ever, and the demand is growing. It has been estimated that if all roads were listed that were sought by delegations during the last month, over $1,000,000 would be required to put these programs over.

A lot of road legislation is pending and should all of these roads be built the county commissioners would have to have probably $5,000,000 at their command. Instead of having millions to spend, the amount available for 1922 is slightly over $200,000.

Tax valuation of the 18 townships in Columbiana, as the duplicate now shows, is placed at $101,067,200, and two mills on this valuation gives the county commissioners a fund of $202,131 to be used on main road improvement during 1922. This money is to be matched by the state highway department, but it is considered doubtful if the state will provide its share.

The official valuation of the different townships in the county, and the amount possible to be raised through the collection of the two mill road levy is listed as follows:

Township	Valuation	Levy
Unity	$ 9,990,029	$ 19,980
Fairfield	7,883,340	15,767
Salem	6,521,240	13,043

The road program for this county

as now worked out by the county commissioners for 1922 is such that practically all of this two mill levy fund is exhausted. It has been estimated that the state highway department will be more liberal in its assignments to Columbiana county during the next year than it has been in the past, and if this be the case, then a lot of grading and surfacing will be put through during 1922 and from plans which have already been prepared.

County Engineer Lloyd C. Kirk, Prosecuting Attorney J. C. Hanley and county commissioners made another trip to Columbus Tuesday afternoon where Wednesday they were to consult with the state highway department about Columbiana county road work for 1922. This is the third time the commissioners have called at the state highway department offices within the last six weeks. It is believed that the conversations Wednesday will clinch the road program for this county for next year, wherein the state and the county are to join.

When A. A. Galbreath was telling the county commissioners Monday of the desire of Middletown township residents to have the East Liverpool-Youngstown intercounty highway put through, he was advised that Middletown fared pretty well during the last year. The records show, Mr. Galbreath was advised, that Middletown township put $1,000 into its road fund during the last year and got $26,000 in return.

Included among the larger road contemplated in this county during 1922 is found listed the following in which county funds will share with the state:

Calcutta road, or a section of the East Liverpool-Youngstown intercounty highway, surfacing with brick $31,000.

Grading on new Salineville-Wellsville road, $13,000.

who asked for the custody of the three children. The case occupied the attention of the court for nearly two days and there were many witnesses and rebuttal and sur-rebuttal testimony introduced. The wife charged that her husband while a good workman frequently became intoxicated and that he refused to support her and the children. They separated six years ago, he taking two of the children to his people in Meigs county, where Judge David G. Jenkins, who heard the case, allows them to remain, but the oldest child, which has been with the mother, is to remain with her.

Home-made, but Has No Equal For Coughs

Makes a family supply of really dependable cough medicine. Easily prepared, and gives about $2.

If you have a severe cough or chest tickle accompanied with soreness, throat tickle, hoarseness, or difficult breathing, or if your child wakes up during the night with cough and you want quick help, try this reliable old home-made cough remedy. Any druggist can supply you with 2½ ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. This recipe makes a pint of really remarkable cough remedy. It tastes good, and in spite of its low cost, it can be depended upon to give quick and lasting relief.

You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that means business. It loosens and raises the phlegm, stops throat tickle and soothes and heals the irritated membranes that line the throat and bronchial tubes with such promptness, ease and certainty that it is really astonishing.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is probably the best known means of overcoming severe coughs, throat and chest colds.

There are many worthless imitations of this mixture. To avoid disappointment, ask for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

company went on the Rubber company's bond when it launched a campaign in Texas, for the sale of rubber stocks, and the bonding company had to pay $2,500. Certain credits are given which reduced the amount now claimed.

Steubenville—There are 80 prisoners in the Jefferson county jail.

Columbus—As a protection against mail robberies, pistols, holsters, belts and 672 rounds of ammunition have been distributed to all postoffice substation crews and mail truck drivers here.

The NEW EDISON

was BEST
by a full 100 %

Dr. W. V. Bingham wanted to know which was the best phonograph. On October 24, 1921, he made a scientific comparison between the New Edison and three other phonographs. He put these instruments through nine different tests,—comparing them for realism in reproducing male and female voices, piano, violin, banjo, and cornet. The New Edison was victorious in all nine tests.

This result means that the New Edison brings beauties in music impossible to other phonographs.

If you find it hard to believe this, compare on your own account. Some artists, such as Rachmaninoff, have made both RE-CREATIONS for Edison, and talking-machine records. Compare the two.

A Phonograph Comparison Card will help you. FREE. Come in and ask for one. If you can't come, use the coupon. Don't delay—Christmas is near.

Contractor's Bid Is $17,000 Under County Estimate

When bids were opened for bituminous macadam surfacing of 12,330 lineal feet of the East Rochester-North Georgetown road in the office of the county commissioners this week, the Barber-Fortin Co., of Warren, bid $48,784.87 or $17,215.18 under the estimate of $66,000. This bid was one of the biggest surprises of the year, so far as the commissioner's office is concerned, but no contract was awarded. Other contractors bid for this road job as follows:

Jones Construction Co., $61,496.74;
Gray Brothers, $61,851.73; Holmes
Construction Co., $58,244.16; Seiple &
Wolf, $61,047.38; E. E. Miller & Son, $68,812.48; J. D. Paxson, $69,449.97;
Tatgenhorst & McLaughlin, $69,099.
88.

The certified checks accompanying all bids were returned to the bidders, except those attached to the three lowest bidders. There is no money in the road fund for this job now, and not until after the tax distribution within the next few weeks will the county be in a position to award the job.

LLOYD GEORGE DESIRES TO SUMMON FIVE-POWER EUROPEAN CONFERENCE

London, Dec. 21.—WILL Lening, head of the Moscow government, shortly be admitted to the councils of Europe?

This question was being seriously considered here today. In many quarters Lloyd George is credited with the desire to put an end immediately to the Anglo-French controversies and thereafter to emulate President Harding by calling a five-power
European conference, with England, France, Italy and Germany represented, along with Russia.

This plan may be possible only in the distant future, but it is already openly talked of. It dovetails with President Harding's desire to see in Europe an international arbitration group similar to the proposed quadrangle Pacific pact.

Champions of the plan argue that if such a conference should meet as the occasion arises, it would have a sedative effect on the minor European rivalries which have contributed to strengthen the French militarist position. It is considered that the proposed conference would act as a brake on French ambitions and would likewise give Lloyd George a dominant position in Europe.

LARGE CROPS OF PIGS SEEN FOR NEXT YEAR

Columbus, Dec. 21.—Next year's crop of pigs is likely to be a big one, in the opinion of S. W. Doty of the grain and livestock marketing department of the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation. There has been a tendency on the part of most corn belt farmers to extend this season's breeding opportunities, according to him.

Mr. Doty points out that, earlier than usual this year, the spring pigs were fed out and sent to market. This was true particularly in eastern states. This was because producers foresaw the probability of the fall break coming earlier than usual and were anxious to get to market before the break came. Furthermore, the farmers had a lot of old corn on hand and the corn was declining in price, with a new crop coming in.

As a result of that policy, the feeding stock became scarce. Chicago, Mr. Doty says, is now besieged with orders from eastern packers for hogs because the supplies at the eastern markets are dwindling.

Chicago, he points out, largely governs the hog market, just as, for instance, New York is the financial center.

There is a large demand at present for feeding stock, and with prospects of heavy feeding next year there will be much attention to corn production, it is believed.

It is believed that future livestock markets will be more stable and satisfactory to producer, buyer and the public, to the extent that co-operative marketing functions, inasmuch as it will insure a more orderly flow of livestock to market, avoiding both glut and famine, together with the sending of hogs to market, which either have not been fed out seasonably, or have been held too long, beyond the point of profit.

STATE AID GIVEN FOR IMPROVEMENT OF COUNTY ROADS

Big Bridge West Of Lisbon Will Be Rebuilt Of Concrete.

The state highway department favored Lisbon and vicinity in financing roads, when county commissioners visited the highway department and made formal request that Columbiana county be given one-half of $495,000 with which to build and improve roads in 1922. This total amount, it had been estimated would be needed to finance the road program as planned and the county agreed to pay one-half to be matched dollar for dollar with state money.

The commissioners had been in session with the state road officials but a short time, when they were given to understand that the distribution of federal aid and inter-county highway funds had not yet been made and until this was done the biggest projects planned by them, outside of the Lincoln Highway west of Lisbon and the Lisbon-Columbiana road from the Lisbon corporation line north, would not be decided.

The Lincoln Highway west of Lisbon for a distance of 3.84 miles, will be paved with brick, 18 feet wide, and the state highway department will pay $90,000 to match the $90,000. The highway department, however, has refused to pay any part or to sanction the improvement of the Canton hill just west of Lisbon and stipulates that the highway improvement shall begin at the top of the hill.

The decision of the highway officials means that a handsome concrete structure will within a short time replace the big bridge spanning the creek and ravine in the west end of Lisbon, on the highway. The state highway department discourages the improvement of the hill, without the building of a new bridge, and the report of the division engineer was that the life of the old bridge will not exceed 10 years. The county commissioners made a proposition to raise the west end of the bridge and in this way cut off a part of the hill but this proposition was also vetoed for the reason that the raising of the bridge would weaken it. The state department will insist on the rebuilding of the bridge which is now more than 950 feet long and county highway officials are of the opinion that the time is not far distant when a handsome reinforced concrete viaduct will span the creek and ravine.

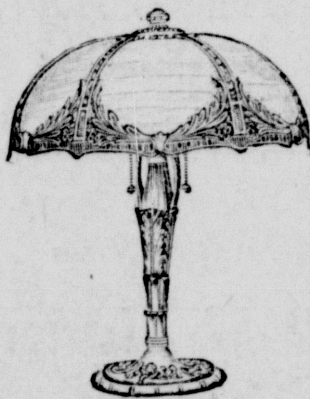

The state highway officials will also do their part toward financing the improvement of the Lisbon-Columbiana road, 2.43 miles north from the corporation line of Lisbon, known as the Lisbon-Youngstown road. The county commissioners asked that this road be paved to a width of 18 feet with brick, but the state highway officials stated that they would ask bids for this improvement both in brick, macadam and concrete.

On all of the other propositions presented by commissioners there was nothing but promises, everything depending, Highway Commissioner Herrick stated upon federal and inter-county highway funds, the distribution of which will be determined later.

MRS. DELLA KUNZE
Chicago, Ill.

"I understand now why so many people praise Tanlac as I have tried it myself and it certainly is a wonderful medicine," said Mrs. Della Kunze, 856 Lill ave., Chicago, valued employee of the Boston Department Store.

"I eat with so much zest and enjoyment now that my family really joke me about it. A short time ago, however, I had absolutely no appetite and was eating so little that I was losing weight and strength every day and I suffered so much from indigestion and nervousness that I was on the brink of a breakdown."

"There are absolutely no words that can express my delight at the remarkable and immediate results I obtained from Tanlac. It benefited me in every way. Instead of being depressed and melancholy and tired and worn out I am full of life and energy and cheerful and happy all the time. I've gained twelve pounds in weight, too."

Removal Of Tax On Express Shipments To Benefit Public

The public will save approximately $1,500 a month as result of the elimination of war tax on express shipments, according to George C. Taylor, president of the American Railway Express company. An announcement to this effect was made today by L. E. Buehler, the local express agent. The "Revenue Act of 1921" eliminates the war tax of one cent on every 20 cents and fractions thereof in transportation charges on all express shipments. This tax during the year of 1920 amounted to $17,502.918. The average transportation charge for each express shipment was approximately $1.50 and the average war tax for each shipment was eight cents.

The elimination of the tax, therefore, Mr. Taylor states, will virtually amount to a decrease in rates of a little over 5 per cent. Mr. Taylor believes that this should have a tendency to stimulate business and thereby accelerate the rapidly improving conditions throughout the entire country.

"The American Railway Express company handles approximately 1,000,000 shipments a day or nearly 450,000,000 shipments a year," Mr. Taylor says. "The elimination of the tax will relieve the America Railway Express company of an immense amount of labor which has been involved in calculating, entering on waybills and collection of tax, not to mention the expense of checking and accounting entailed."

The treasury department has requested express carriers to advise all

WRITERS GUESTS OF FOREIGNERS

DELEGATES MAKE KNOWN VIEW-POINTS OF THEIR GOVERN-MENTS AT RECEPTIONS.

INTERPRETERS NOT NEEDED

Representatives of the Netherlands
Are the Best Linguists in Washington—Interesting Career of Lord Riddell, Spokesman for Britain.

By EDWARD B. CLARK

Washington.—The various delegations of foreigners who are here are giving a series of receptions to the multitude of writers who are assembled in Washington. The receptions are given under the direction or management of the embassies of the countries interested.

These affairs are interesting because they are made in part vehicles by which to communicate to the correspondents the viewpoint of the government represented by the hosts.

There is some very plain speaking at these affairs and also at the daily or semi-weekly meetings in which some spokesman for each foreign government meets the newspaper correspondents. Some persons have called these meetings propaganda affairs, and so perhaps in a way they are, for at them one gets the viewpoint of each government on the great affairs in hand. However, the viewpoint of Great Britain, France or some other country is news, and as it is put forth as being the official viewpoint of this nation or that nation, the persons who read it can draw their own conclusions as to the nature of the material. It is a good guide for every commentator on the conference to know just how this nation or that nation feels about this matter or that matter.

There are no linguistic troubles at these gatherings. Every delegation here has members who speak the English language as well as any native Englishman or native American. If there is any halting in the tongue of a delegate some member of his country's embassy is pressed into the service as spokesman, and every embassy has its linguists.

Dutch the Best Linguists.

Taking it all in all the Dutch are the best linguists in Washington. The Hollander can talk almost any known language, apparently, and he does it well. The Dutch gave a reception a night or two ago to the writers here, and the gathering was addressed by the chief delegate from Holland. If any auditor did not know in advance what delegation it was of which he was the guest, he would have supposed that his hosts were Englishmen, or possibly Americans. The Dutch spokesmen here speak English with barely a trace of a Netherlands accent.

The Dutch envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Washington is absent from his post just at present. The charge d'affaires is Jonker W. H. de Beaufort. He has general charge of matters in Washington today so far as his legation's activities are concerned. M. de Beaufort is about the best linguist in town unless one makes an exception in favor of Interpreter Camerlynck of the conference. I asked M. de Beaufort the other night how he, a Hollander, had such a distinctively French name. His answer was that he was descended from French Huguenots who fled into Holland at the time of the revocation of the edict of Nantes.

Then he told me that a short time before he had paid a visit to Charleston, S. C., and that there he had found a Huguenot society composed of descendants of the Protestant French who had been driven out of their native country. It seems that in Holland and in other places these Huguenot descendants keep up an affiliation for the reason of sentiment.

Lord Riddell is Interesting.

Lord Riddell, concerning whom a good deal has been written heretofore for the press of the country, is what is called the liaison officer between the British delegation and the newspaper correspondents, American and foreign, who now are in the city. Lord Riddell meets the newspaper men every morning at 10:30 sharp at the navy building and gives to them the British viewpoint of everything that is going on, and he does it in a direct newspaper way, for Lord Riddell has been a newspaper man for a great many years.

The life of this man has been an interesting one. He owns and publishes a paper in London called The News of the World. It is unlike other newspapers in a good many respects, for it does not content itself with giving the news of the world of today only, but sets forth the accumulated news of a good many days in brief and pertinent manner. The success of this paper may be judged by the fact that it has a circulation for each edition of 3,500,000 copies.

This British newspaper proprietor, like Greene, the historian of the English people, spends every day "learning." He is interested in everything pertaining to his profession, and of course is interested in other matters just as much. He has been making a study of American journalistic methods.

Lord Riddell began his career without a penny in his pocket. He came from a labor family and he has labored in one sense all his life.

MORE FARM SPEAKERS FOR "FARMERS' WEEK"

Emphasis on talks delivered by practical farmers and a somewhat smaller number of farm organization conventions are features of a program for the 1932 Farmers' week, now being prepared at Ohio State university. Dates for Farmers' week this year are from Monday, Jan. 20 to Friday, Feb. 3. Nearly all college departments and farm organizations have submitted programs to the secretary of agricultural extension work, whose task it is to correlate the material to avoid placing two lectures of similar subject at the same hour, and to arrange adequate meeting places according to the expected size of the group.

At the last Farmers' week, 168 speakers delivered 260 lectures before audiences totalling 6,197. For the most part, these audiences were of farmers and their families who came to Columbus for the entire week. Last year, 22 Ohio farm organizations held annual meetings during the five days' session; this year, only 18 such organization meetings will be held.

Asked what changes would mark the 1932 program, George Crane, extension secretary, said that the total number of events will be slightly reduced so as to cut down conflicts in the schedule; that more talks will be given, relatively, by farmers and fewer by professors, and that more attention than in the past will be paid to community activities, particularly along the lines of rural recreation.

Gay Bungalow Caps

Here is something new in breakfast caps. It is made of gay cretonne and is buttoned up the back so that it may be easily washed and ironed. It is bound with a plain color in chambray and has a narrow band of this material about it. The brim portion may be turned up or down and is shown here turned up at one side and down on the other.

DUSTING SPODS DIDN'T WORK, SPECIALISTS SAY

"Dusting" did not work nearly so well as spraying when it came to protecting potato fields against hopperburn last summer, announce, T. H. Parks and E. E. Clayton, extension specialists of the Ohio State university. In fact, dusting paid hardly at all while spraying gave remarkable crop increases.

This finding, the result of a large number of practical trials on farms in northern counties, contradicts the belief of not a few agriculturists that protective chemicals will in time be applied to plants entirely in powder form, rather than as a liquid. The university investigators find that on 14 tests dusted an average of four times in Lake, Stark and Greene counties, the average increase of yields was 10 bushels to the acre barely enough to offset the added expense of applying the chemical in dust form. The net financial gain to the farmer was $2.13 an acre.

On the other hand, 29 northern Ohio farm tests using a geared traction sprayer, and applying bordeaux mixture, got an average additional income of $27.50 an acre. Gas-power sprayers in 27 other tests added $54.50 to value of the crop on each acre sprayed. Even the old-time pump sprayer, worked by hand, gave results far superior to those secured from the most expensive dusting equipment.

Discussing the results of these demonstrations, the investigators say that they do not condemn dusting as a general practice, but that results show most decisively that spraying and not dusting is what was needed to protect potatoes from hopperburn last summer.

OUR READERS

Horses, Roads and Bibles

Editor of The News:

We see a lot of comment on reading the Bible in our public schools.

While we admit that people have a right to their own religious beliefs so many different creeds look foolish to me. People are all supposed to be working for the same cause. Why so many different denominations? If they would follow the teachings of the Bible a little closer, there would not be so many Sunday Christians and week-day devils. You can find them right in Salem.

I think if our officials and other citizens would get away from the fire long enough to examine conditions on some of our city streets, and country roads also, they might follow one teaching of the Bible by being kind to dumb animals. I think that Garfield ave. East Ninth and Union sts are cases for the Humane society to investigate. They are a disgrace to the town, and not safe for a horse to travel about six months in each year.

But horses have to haul coal over them the year round. One expression about Garfield ave was made by one of our best teamsters was as follows: "What that bunch needs is to put iron shoes on them, bring them out here, hitch them to a load of coal and put me behind them with a black snake whip."

A little severe, but that is what horses have to take every day when they are afraid of falling even when they have sharp shoes on, and if we get a horse's leg broken I suppose the law will say we have to stand the loss because we were foolish enough to accept conditions as they were.

Our service director has accomplished a large amount of good during his term of office but what can one man do if he has not got the support of the people?

It really appears as if all they can think of now is to make good main roads for auto joy riding, the smoother the road, the better. They do not think that a horse has a right on the roads. If only the people that were responsible for this condition were the only ones that would have accidents we could all cheerfully go to their funerals.

But as usual, it is the innocent ones that have to suffer. I have had two horses crippled as a result of some of our streets in Salem during the last year, and know of several others. I pity the horses, and the only way I know to remedy conditions, is to go after our officials' rough shod, and if they will not remedy them, we should know who to vote for next election.

Yours for better streets, roads and a square deal for the horse and his driver.

FATHER'S HOLIDAY

By EDITH M. PORTER.

(C) 1921, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Perhaps it being mother's birthday made Lydia Ann unusually thoughtful or perhaps it "just happened so." But if she had not possessed the seeing eyes that look below and beyond the surface of things, father would never have seen the dawn of his vacation.

Lydia Ann chanced to be looking from the window when her father came home that night.

The Morrises' old horse, head bent down and a general air of depression possessing him, stood before the door. Father O'Hara had stopped, stroked the old creature fraternally, and said to his driver: "Go easy on him, John. He's doing his best. He's old."

Then, as the driver started without the usual slash of whip and jerk at the mouth, father had added sympathetically, "He's old and tired and needs a vacation."

That night Lydia Ann, who had been doing a lot of silent thinking, surprised her mother by asking when pa had had a vacation.

"Vacation?" mused mother. "Well, really and truly, I doubt if he's had one since we've been married, and you'll find that was 35 years ago. He went back to his old home once when his mother died. He was gone about a week then."

"A sorrowful sort of a vacation, that," commented Lydia Ann.

"Well, you see," explained her mother, "he never could seem to afford a real good vacation."

A few evenings later Lydia Ann managed to broach the subject to her unsuspecting parent.

"Tell me something, won't you dad, about your old home? It must have been a mighty interesting home from the little I've heard about it."

Dad brightened visibly and instantaneously.

"You just ought to go there sometime, sis," he said. "To my mind, there's no other place just like it. There's a brook rushing through the meadow just by our old home and it joins one of the most beautiful lakes you ever set eyes on. Many the fine trout I've caught there. On the margin of the lake is our jolly old camping ground."

He paused a moment, smiling as his mind roamed through the old haunts, and Lydia Ann could scarcely believe this was her quiet, shy father as he raved on—of birds and rabbits and squirrels, of birds shooting through the mountain laurel; of the secrecy and silence of the still woodland ways; of the wide meadows of buttercups, the tangled masses of wild flowers—violets, starworts, bluebells, purple ground ivy and hyacinths.

He described a lake where birds at evening dipped and circled and flashed over the dark surface.

Lydia Ann put on her thinking cap. Her father's vacation was only two weeks away!

He was already mentioning various jobs around the home which he intended doing, such as painting, papering and "fixing up" in general.

But Lydia, looking with opened eyes upon the gray hairs and wrinkled brow of her patient father, was cruelly reminded of Morrison's old horse and its need of a vacation.

"He's homesick, too," she murmured, "and I've simply got to find some way to let him go."

The way came, and in the nick of time. Its beginning was in a letter from Aunt Lydia Ann, for whom the eager girl wore her quaint, old-fashioned name.

It read:

"Dear Niece Lydia Ann—You will remember the pieces of old furniture I left in your attic many years ago? I know you must be tired of seeing them there. You may send me the little table and the rest you may have either to keep or dispose of, as you see fit. If you can find some collector of old furniture, you may get quite a bit for them. Well, whatever you get it is yours to pay for storage, etc. Your loving Aunt,"

"LYDIA ANN."

They were of value. When Lydia Ann disposed of them, to her astonishment and joy, she had $150. To all the various suggestions offered as to its investment she turned deaf ears. The night before his vacation began she went to her father with the money.

"Dad," she said softly, "wouldn't it be great if you and I and mother could go out to your old home and spend your vacation going around to all the dear old places? The trout stream, the orchard where the Baldwins and Northern Spies grow, the woods road, lined with mountain laurel, the old camping grounds and the pine groves and the little old schoolhouse you used—"

Here she was interrupted by her father.

"Child, child," he said nervously, "are you crazed?"

"Does this look like it?" she answered, as she placed the wonderful talisman in his trembling hands.

When he tried to thank Lydia Ann she puzzled him by saying that he must not thank her, but himself, mother's birthday and Morrison's old white horse.

And so father had his brief day of pleasure. The memory of which was to sweeten all the possible bitterness of future life and strife. And whether it was through Lydia Ann, her aunt, Morrison's old white horse, or its own selfishness makes no difference.

MOTHERS AID SOUGHT IN STATE CAMPAIGN TO AVOID ACCIDENTS

The safety division of the department of industrial relations has made an appeal to the mothers of Ohio—"In the spirit of Christmas"—to co-operate with them in launching a campaign to prevent accidents.

In determining to reduce the number of accidents in the state, the department has decided to start with the children and teach them habits of carefulness, before they have formed habits of carelessness that they will find it hard to break.

It will then be unnecessary to attempt to teach them "new tricks" after they have started to work in factory or shop, they argue. "At this time when so many of you are gathered at your fireside, happy in the holiday spirit, the department appeals to all the mothers of Ohio."

"When on Christmas eve, all the presents have been distributed, and the hearts of the children have been made happy and glad, think whether it would be possible for you to get from this holiday season the same enjoyment, if any one of these little hearts had been stilled. Remember then, that there will be thousands of homes in Ohio that are saddened, because of some terrible accident, due to carelessness or negligence, some accident that might have been prevented."

"Remember that today, everything is 'speed.' Speed in production is the ultimate goal at every corner we see 'speed.' People are scurrying across streets, not watching what is ahead of them or behind them, or to their right or left; high-powered motor cars are driven recklessly, blindly through the streets and down country roads."

"Have you cautioned your children to be careful? Are you starting now to teach them habits of caution? This department is striving to eliminate carelessness as a cause of accidents in this state. The department begs and pleads that Ohio mothers will aid us in this task that means so much to so many homes and families—to so many mothers and families. The boys in school today are the business men and the workers of tomorrow. They cannot take their place in the world, efficiently, if they are maimed or crippled. It will be an aid to humanity if mothers will start today to warn their children, everyday, to be careful."

"Instill this fear of accidents into the minds of the little folks. Always remember, when you read of accidents, that some other mother is heartbroken; that some home will not be as happy on Christmas eve as yours will be. Think of the number of homes into which some crushed and bleeding form has been tenderly carried, and then placed in a little white casket."

"On this, the birthday of our Saviour, let every mother in the state start teaching the lesson of carefulness to her children, to the end that there be fewer homes in which there are no hands to caress her cheeks softly, no sounds of scurrying feet through the house; fewer homes in which crippled children limp around, handicapped forever in life's battle."

Washington — President Harding signed a bill extending from Jan. 2, 1922, to Jan. 2, 1923, the time in which claims growing out of the war may be filed with the alien property custodian.
